Withdrawals of all or any part of a term deposit prior to the agreed maturity date are subject to such conditions as determined by the Bank. You acknowledge and accept that any early withdrawal of a term deposit may result in the application of lower interest rates and early withdrawal fees or penalties, as specified in the Special Features.

In the absence of any instruction from you in relation to your Term Deposit Account at least two (2) Business Days prior to the maturity of the term deposit, the term deposit, together with interest accrued, will be renewed for similar period at the prevailing rate of interest on the date of such renewal.

The Bank's obligation to repay the term deposit shall arise at maturity. The Bank, at its absolute discretion, may consent to a premature withdrawal from the Term Deposit Account.

The Joint Account Holders will also need to inform the Bank how the end of service benefits for the deceased and any funds received as a result of payment of an insurance policy in favour of a deceased Account Holder should be allocated.

Any and all cheques, notes or other instruments payable or purporting to belong to one or more Joint Account Holders can be deposited in a Joint Account for the benefit of all the Joint Account Holders.

- (iii) an "and/or" basis, meaning that, in the case of a Joint Account with three (3) or more Joint Account Holders, the Bank will accept instructions on the Joint Account given by any two Joint Account Holders acting jointly on behalf of the other Joint Account Holders.

If such mandate is not provided, the opening and operation of a Joint Account will require the signature or equivalent authorisation of all of the Joint Account Holders.

If the Bank receives conflicting instructions from the Joint Account Holders, before acting on such instructions the Bank may request a Court order to confirm the instructions, confirmation from all Joint Account Holders or request a fresh Account mandate signed by the Joint Account Holders.

- (d) What are the Bank's rights in respect of Joint Accounts?

The Bank is entitled to place to the credit of any Joint Account all amounts, including dividends, interest and capital funds arising from securities or proceeds of cheques or bills, received or collected by the Bank for the credit of the Joint Account Holders.

All correspondence in relation to the Joint Account will be sent to the address stipulated in the account opening form.

(e) What is the liability of each account holder in relation to a Joint Account?

Accounts may only be operated by the Guardian of the Minor until such Minor attains the age of majority under Applicable Law.

The Guardian must:

In all circumstances:

- (i) the Service will be conditional on, and linked to, the Guardian's Account or Card;
- (ii) the Guardian will be responsible and liable for any use of the Services (including all transactions, fees and costs incurred) by the Minor;

- (iii) it will be the responsibility of the Guardian to monitor use of the Services by the Minor; and

- (i) The Bank may consider an Account to be dormant if no debit or credit transactions (other than those initiated by the Bank) have been initiated on such Account for a period specified by the Bank and the Account meets the conditions for dormancy in accordance with Applicable Law ("Dormant Account"). The Bank will notify you periodically if an Account is approaching dormancy in accordance with Applicable Law.
- (ii) The Bank will notify you of its decision to consider an Account as dormant. If no response is received from you and no transactions are initiated by you on the Account, the Bank may take all steps it deems necessary in accordance with its policies and Applicable Law (including to notify the competent authorities, including the Central Bank, of its decision to consider the Account as dormant, transfer amounts standing to the credit of a Dormant Account or other unclaimed balances to a dormant account ledger maintained by the Bank or the Central Bank and to stop or reduce the frequency of any account statements in respect of such Dormant Account). In such circumstances, amounts and balances transferred will not generate interest payments by the Bank or the Central Bank. Notwithstanding any transfer to the Central Bank, the Central Bank will have no responsibility to you as a result of such transfer (including in relation to any claims for interest, returns or profits).

(b) How do you re-activate a Dormant Account?

You may re-activate a Dormant Account by submitting a request to the Bank. All Charges and Fees due to the Bank will continue to accrue and will remain payable by you.

(c) How do you claim the credit balance of a Dormant Account?

To ensure the surviving Joint Account Holder has unrestricted access to their funds and the Services, the Bank may, in accordance with Applicable Law and in its discretion require the surviving Joint Account Holder to open a separate Account and to transfer their relevant share from the Joint Account.

1.8. Suspension or Freezing of Account

(a) Under which circumstances can the Bank suspend or freeze an Account?

You may not thereafter raise any objections to the account statement and the account statements maintained by the Bank as to the status of your Accounts will be conclusive and binding on you.
- (b) It is your responsibility to notify the Bank if you do not receive an account statement or are otherwise unable to access an account statement within one (1) month of the date on which the account statement should have been received or made available to you. - (i) All fund transfers are entirely your responsibility and risk. The Bank will, as part of its regulatory obligations, screen all outward payments and telex, SWIFT and/or UAE FTS messages (as applicable) to satisfy itself that the payment does not breach any Applicable Law. As part of this obligation, the Bank, its agents and correspondents reserve the right to require additional information from you in relation to the beneficiary and purpose of transfer and your transfer may not be completed or processed until such information is provided.
- (ii) You should understand that fund transfers entail the use of electronic systems, networks and Third Parties (including intermediary banks) that are outside of the Bank's control. The Bank is not responsible for any delays, failures, errors or other shortcomings in executing, processing or completing any transfer due to an electronic system, network or the actions of any Third Party (including any intermediary bank or foreign regulator). Such transfers are entirely at your risk.

All other information provided such as the beneficiary name and other details will not be used by the Bank and the Bank will have no liability in the event of discrepancy between name/ IBAN.

The Bank will be entitled to impose charges on cheques which are returned unpaid. If cheques are returned due to insufficient funds in your Current Account, or where the Bank has paid only part of the value of the cheque due to insufficient funds in your Current Account, the Bank may collect from you any unused cheques and report your name and cheque details to the Central Bank, the Etihad Credit Bureau or any other competent authority without any notice to you or any liability on the Bank. If any cheques issued by you are returned, this may result in a negative credit rating which could affect your ability to obtain financing in the future.

- (d) Can you stop payment on a cheque you have issued?

You agree that any instructions to stop payment of any cheque will only be accepted in accordance with Applicable Law and the Bank's policy. In accordance with Applicable Law, the Bank will not accept a stop payment of any cheque other than where such cheque has been lost, stolen or upon the bankruptcy of the bearer subject to the provision of a police report to the Bank. As such, original cheques may be destroyed and will not be returned to you. The Bank is entitled to act on any such image or representation for all purposes as if it were an original cheque.

You are obliged to ensure that the total amount of cheques that you have written on your Current Account do not, at any time, exceed the credit balance available in such Current Account. The Bank may make partial payments up to the value of the credit balance in your Current Account if this is acceptable to the bearer of the cheque.

In case you are the beneficiary of a cheque which is returned because of insufficient funds, you have the right to accept partial payment of such cheque, by approaching directly the drawee bank to proceed with the partial payment.

The Bank may offer you a service which allows you to rent a safe deposit locker in the Bank's vaults for physical safekeeping of your property (the "Safe Deposit Locker Service"), subject to payment of rental fees or charges, minimum relationship requirements and any other eligibility requirements, in each case, as specified in the applicable Special Features.

The Safe Deposit Locker Service is offered subject to availability and for one (1) year rental periods or as otherwise agreed by the Bank. The Bank assumes no responsibility for any items placed in a safe deposit locker.

The rental period can be extended beyond one (1) year subject to renewal by mutual consent of you and the Bank. Renewal of the Safe Deposit Locker Service will be on terms and conditions similar to those prevailing on the date of renewal and you agree to be bound by such terms and conditions at all times while availing the Safe Deposit Locker Service.

In case the Safe Deposit Locker Service is not renewed as mentioned above, and you do not surrender the key(s) of the safe deposit locker and the safe deposit locker on the expiry date, the Safe Deposit Locker Service will automatically be deemed to be renewed for a period of one (1) year and you agree to pay fees determined by the Bank at the time of renewal, subject to the Bank's sole discretion.

(b) When can you access your safe deposit locker?

Unless agreed otherwise, you can only access a safe deposit locker on a Business Day and during branch opening hours or as set out in the Special Features, except a smart locker which can be accessed by you 24x7. The Bank has the right to inspect and examine the contents of all lockers in your presence (or your lawful attorney) prior to depositing such items in any safe deposit locker. You will not have access to your safe deposit locker when you have outstanding rental fees unless you pay the outstanding rental fees in full.

(c) What can you not deposit in the safe deposit locker?

The safe deposit locker is designed to store documents, valuables and other items of a similar nature for lawful purposes only. You may not use or permit the safe deposit locker to be used for the deposit of any monies in cash, including without limitation, bank notes, coins or any legal tender in any currency of any jurisdiction which is in circulation. You must not deposit any dangerous, illegal, living or unstable items or anything that is illegal, offensive or immoral under Applicable Law or any substances or materials which will or may cause any harm to any party, premises or place. You must comply with the Bank's rules and policies regarding the use of the safe deposit locker and suitability of items, which may be placed in the safe deposit locker.

You acknowledge that the Bank is not aware of the contents of the safe deposit locker and has no knowledge as to the purpose of your use of the safe deposit locker at any time.

You will indemnify and hold harmless the Bank, its Affiliates and any customers or visitors to the Bank's premises from any liability arising from your use of the safe deposit locker.

- (d) What are your obligations regarding the safekeeping of the safe deposit locker?

The safe deposit locker keys will remain the property of the Bank at all times. You must ensure the safe and proper custody of any keys to a safe deposit locker and ensure the keys remain within your possession at all times.

You and every joint account holder to the safe deposit box must promptly notify the Bank and the relevant authorities in case a key is lost or stolen in accordance with Section A Clause 6. Unless and until the Bank has received such notification, the Bank will not be responsible for the loss or theft of any items in the safe deposit locker.

Following receipt of a notification from you and every joint account holder that the keys to the safe deposit locker have been lost or stolen, you (or your lawful attorney) must attend at the Bank's premises and authorise the Bank to break the lock to the safe deposit locker in your presence (or your lawful attorney). You will bear the risk and responsibility for any damage caused to the items in the safe deposit locker as a result of breaking such lock.

You cannot assign, sublet or convey in any way whatsoever the safe deposit locker or any part of it.

- (e) What are the Bank's obligations towards you in relation to the Safe Deposit Locker Service?

In no event shall the Bank be liable to you for any 'indirect' or 'consequential' loss, including (without limitation) any loss of data, profits, revenue, turnover, sales, production, anticipated savings, goodwill, business opportunities or contracts or any other economic loss whatsoever (whether direct or indirect) arising out of or in connection with the Safe Deposit Locker Service.

- (f) How can you terminate the Safe Deposit Locker Service?

Each of the Bank and you may, by providing the other with no less than ten (10) days prior notice, terminate the Safe Deposit Locker Service.

If you wish to terminate the Safe Deposit Locker Service, you must:

- (i) pay all amounts due to the Bank in connection with the Safe Deposit Locker Service; and
- (ii) remove all items placed in, and return all keys to, the safe deposit locker, in each case, prior to the date of intended termination.

- (g) What if you fail to pay your Liabilities when due?

Without prejudice and in addition to the provisions stated above the Bank will have the authority to debit your Account, without giving you any prior notice, for all dues recoverable from you in respect of the Safe Deposit Locker Service.

The non-payment of amounts due to the Bank will entitle the Bank to treat the Safe Deposit Locker Service as terminated and to recover the safe deposit locker in accordance with Applicable Law and notify you accordingly. You must attend at the Bank's premises on the date specified in order to empty the safe deposit locker. If you fail to attend, the Bank will be entitled to apply to a Court of competent jurisdiction for permission to open the safe deposit locker and empty its contents. The Bank will act in accordance with the instructions of the Court.

Until the payment of any amounts due to the Bank in connection with the Safe Deposit Locker Service, the Bank will have the right to retain the contents of the safe deposit locker and a priority claim over the proceeds of any sale of such contents.

- (h) What if you damage a safe deposit locker?

The Bank is entitled to recover all costs for the repair of a safe deposit locker or any keys to a safe deposit locker from you whether by deducting such amount from the deposit paid in connection with the Safe Deposit Locker Service, debiting your Account or otherwise.

- (i) When will your Safe Deposit Locker Service be classified as “dormant”?

If you have not paid the rental fees for a minimum of three (3) years and if you have not used your Safe Deposit Locker Service or otherwise communicated with the Bank for a minimum of three (3) years, your Safe Deposit Locker Service will be classified as dormant, provided all other Accounts with the Bank are also dormant. Once you pay the outstanding rental fees in full, the Safe Deposit Locker Service will no longer be classified as dormant in accordance with the Bank’s policies.

You should also note that the Bank is permitted under Applicable Law to break-open dormant safe deposit lockers under Court supervision. You should understand that if your safe deposit locker is accessed by a nominee and not you, this will not be sufficient to maintain the active status of your safe deposit locker.

- (j) What happens if you die or lose your mental capacity during the term of the rental of the safe deposit locker?

If you lose your mental capacity during the term of the rental of the safe deposit locker, the Bank will allow your legal representatives to open the safe deposit locker, or will open the safe deposit locker for them, provided that such persons produce on demand evidence, to the Bank’s satisfaction, that they are your legal representatives in accordance with Applicable Law.

If you die, the Bank will, after being notified of your death, not allow the safe deposit locker to be opened except pursuant to an order of a Court in the Emirate where the safe deposit locker is located.

3.5. Additional Services

- (a) What additional services does the Bank offer?

The Bank may offer additional services to you at its sole and absolute discretion from time to time. Such additional services will be subject to terms and conditions and fees notified to you by the Bank.

SECTION D: LOANS

This Section will apply to you if you have applied for or have obtained a Loan. This Section must be read together with other sections that may apply to you, including without limitation Sections A (General Terms), F (Channels) and H (Glossary).

1. Master Loan Terms

1.1. Application

- (a) When does this Section apply to you?

This Section sets out the terms applicable to all Loans provided by the Bank. If you have obtained a Loan from the Bank, this Section will apply to you. By accepting a Sanction Letter, signing or submitting an application for a Loan, and/or taking a Loan, you are deemed to have read and understood the terms of the applicable Loan Documents and agree to be bound by them. If there is a conflict between these General Terms and the specific terms of the Loan Documents you have obtained as set out in the Sanction Letter or other similar document, the specific terms in such document will prevail.

1.2. Loan Process

- (a) What types of Loans does the Bank offer

The Bank offers a variety of Loans as described in this Section and on the Website. The availability, eligibility criteria and applicable conditions in respect of any Loan are subject to the Bank's sole and absolute discretion and Applicable Law.

- (b) How do you apply for a Loan?

You can apply for a Loan by using the relevant application for a Loan or by contacting the Bank. The Bank has the right to approve or reject any application for a Loan in the Bank's sole and absolute discretion. Where permitted by Applicable Law, the Bank will endeavour to provide its reasons for any such rejection.

You can only obtain a Loan up to the limit the Bank has approved and notified to you. You may not re-borrow any part of a Loan which is repaid but the Bank may, upon your request, agree to the amount of a Loan being increased from time to time. Any such request will be subject to the procedures and policies of the Bank at the relevant time.

The Bank reserves the right, at any time, without liability or penalty, to refuse to provide any Loan. Where permitted by Applicable Law, the Bank will endeavour to provide its reasons for any such refusal.

- (c) How will your Loan be disbursed?

The Bank will disburse a Loan in the manner advised to you in the relevant Loan Document or pursuant to the relevant terms of the applicable Loan as set out in this Section.

The Bank is under no obligation to disburse a Loan to you and any disbursement will be subject to its satisfaction and continuing compliance with the requirements of the Loan Documents.

1.3. Loan conditions

- (a) What general conditions must be satisfied in order for you to receive a Loan?

You must submit to the Bank all forms, documents and evidence relating to a Loan that the Bank may require, in form and substance satisfactory to the Bank.

You understand and agree that the Bank will determine, using its internal policies and systems, your ability to afford a Loan, given the information you provided on your income, financial obligations and other personal details and that which the Bank itself obtains from the Al Etihad Credit Bureau or other credit/service providers and/or any other relevant Third Parties.

You must comply with the undertakings set out in this Section. In particular, you must promptly inform the Bank if:

- (i) you become unemployed or lose the primary source of your income; and
 - (ii) you have lost or will shortly lose residency status in the UAE.
- (b) Are there any restrictions on your use of a Loan?

Any Loan must be used for the Approved Purpose set out in the relevant Loan Document, if applicable and/or in accordance with the Loan Documents.

1.4. Repayment

- (a) How do you repay a Loan?

You must repay a Loan together with interest and all other charges in accordance with applicable Loan terms for your Loan as set out in this Section and in the Loan Documents. All such repayments and related payments must be made in the manner advised by the Bank to you in the Loan Documents or otherwise in accordance with these General Terms.

You will need to repay the Loan by way of Instalments on the Due Dates and in the amounts set out in the relevant Loan Document.

You will also need to pay interest on the Principal Amount as per the Interest Rate detailed in the relevant Loan Document until the Loan is repaid in full.

If a repayment or payment is due on a day that is not a Business Day, such payment must be made on the preceding Business Day.

Any amounts received by the Bank in respect of a Loan will typically be applied in the following order:

- (i) firstly, towards payment of all costs and expenses of the Bank;
- (ii) secondly, towards payment of Charges and Fees;
- (iii) thirdly, towards payment of interest;
- (iv) fourthly, towards repayment of the Principal Amount; and
- (v) fifthly, towards repayment of any other amounts due from you to the Bank.

All payments must be made in the currency of the relevant Loan. If any payment is made in any other currency, the Bank reserves the right to convert such currency in accordance with Section C of these General Terms. Any payment made will only be credited to the relevant Account on the date that the Bank actually receives the required funds.

A cheque is an acceptable form of payment of any amounts due in accordance with the Loan Documents. Any payment by cheque will only be considered as having been received by the Bank upon the proceeds of such cheque being credited to the relevant Account.

You may make a payment of any amounts due in accordance with the Loan Documents by way of direct debit or account transfer from an Account.

You should understand that failure to make your payments in relation to a Loan could result in a negative credit rating and affect your ability to obtain financing in the future.

1.5. Payment Deferral

(a) Can you defer your repayments?

You may be able to defer your repayments if approved by the Bank in its sole and absolute discretion. You will need to satisfy the Bank's eligibility criteria for payment deferral and submit a request in the form required by the Bank.

If the Bank approves your request, the term of the relevant Loan will be extended by the number of months that is equal to the number of monthly repayment instalments deferred or such longer period as notified by the Bank, and the deferred payment will become due and payable over the remaining term of the Loan.

By taking a payment deferral, depending on the terms of the deferral agreed by the Bank, the amount of an Instalment may be increased and/or it may take you longer to discharge all Liabilities outstanding in relation to your Loan than otherwise may be the case.

Interest on the portion of an Instalment that is deferred in accordance with this Clause will accrue on a daily basis from the date that the instalment was originally due until repayment of that instalment is made in full. Interest will continue to accrue at the rate specified in the relevant Loan Document in respect of the Principal Amount and will be debited from your Account at the times determined by the Bank and notified to you.

A Loan will not be treated as fully repaid until all payments relating to a payment deferral and other repayments have been repaid in full in addition to all accrued interest, Charges and Fees.

From time to time, you may be eligible for promotional deferrals. Such promotional deferrals may be subject to their own terms and conditions, which will supplement these General Terms. Your acceptance of and/or participation in such promotional deferral offer will constitute your acceptance and agreement to be bound by any such supplemental terms and conditions.

You should understand that any deferral agreed by the Bank is not a waiver of payment of any Liabilities.

1.6. Prepayment

(a) Can you prepay a Loan?

You can prepay all or part of a Loan together with any accrued interest and charges prior to the applicable Loan Due Date. Any prepayment made will be non-refundable and you will not be entitled to redraw any such payment.

Any prepayment may be subject to Early Settlement Fees.

Following receipt of a prepayment request, the Bank will notify you of the total amount due to the Bank calculated to the next Due Date, including all accrued interest, Charges and Fees.

Unless you instruct the Bank otherwise, the Bank will apply the prepayment in the order set out above in Section D Clause 1.4(a). Alternatively, you may request in your prepayment notice that such prepayment is applied by the Bank to satisfy future monthly instalments.

If you make an overpayment, and unless you notify the Bank otherwise, the Bank will not apply any such overpayment towards a prepayment of a Loan or any related payments. Instead such overpayment will be utilised against the next monthly Instalment when due.

If you make a prepayment, the final payment due from you to pay off a Loan in full will be adjusted accordingly and may result in the term of the Loan being reduced.

1.7. Interest and other Charges

(a) How is interest calculated?

Interest will be payable by you over the term of a Loan on the Principal Amount at the Interest Rate.

The Bank calculates interest on the daily outstanding balance of a Loan. The Interest Rate is based on a reducing balance method. The Bank does not charge interest on accrued interest.

You will be required to pay the accrued interest in arrears on each Interest Payment Date. Interest accrues daily and is calculated on the basis of a 365 day year and the actual days elapsed.

(b) Can the Bank change the interest rate?

The Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, at any time and with prior written notice, in accordance with Applicable Law, vary the Interest Rate for any particular Loan, if the Bank determines that:

- (i) our costs of financing a Loan have increased;
- (ii) the Bank has incurred or are reasonably likely to incur any other costs, fees or expenses in connection with a Loan;
- (iii) your risk profile has changed;
- (iv) the variation of the relevant Interest Rate is appropriate by reference to the prevailing market conditions or otherwise; and/or
- (v) if applicable, your employer ceases to pay your monthly salary into your Account or you do not provide the Bank with the Salary Transfer Letter.

If you have a Loan where interest is based on EIBOR (or such other benchmark rate), the Interest Rate may vary from time to time as a result of fluctuations in such benchmark rate.

Any variation or change by the Bank of the Interest Rate and any amount of interest payable by you (or, if applicable, any other guarantor or obligor) under a Loan will be conclusive and binding on you and any co-borrower (and, if applicable, any guarantor or obligor).

(c) Can the Bank vary the Charges and Fees relating to a Loan?

The Bank may vary the charges relating to a Loan by giving you appropriate notice on the Website or by such other means of communication, as prescribed by the Bank from time to time and in accordance with Applicable Law. Please refer to the Schedule of Charges for the current charges.

(d) What is default interest and when is it charged?

The Bank may charge you Default Interest upon occurrence of an Event of Default. Default Interest accruing at the Default Interest Rate on the Principal Amount will be calculated by the Bank on a daily basis for the period throughout which the Termination Event is continuing and will be added to the Principal Amount (and, for the avoidance of doubt, interest will be payable on that increased Principal Amount) and will be payable by you on demand.

(e) What other charges and costs could you incur?

In addition to any other rights the Bank may have, you will be liable to pay on demand all of the Bank's costs, fees and expenses (including legal expenses and any applicable Charges and Fees imposed by the Bank) in connection with a Loan, including but not limited to the Bank's enforcement expenses in connection with a Loan and/or Security.

1.8. Security

(a) What security do you need to provide for a Loan?

As a condition to granting you a Loan, you may be required by the Bank, in its sole and absolute discretion, to provide certain Security as security for the repayment of the Loan, interest, fees, commission and charges owed by you to the Bank pursuant to the Loan Documents, as well as security for the repayment of any and all amounts owed by you to the Bank at any time pursuant to any other facilities and/or loans granted by the Bank to you at any time.

You may also be required to provide dated or undated security cheques for the value of the Principal Amount plus a proportion of interest (not exceeding 120 % of the value of the Loan or such other limit permitted under Applicable Law) for the purposes of repayment of any amount outstanding under a Loan. You understand that by providing such cheques you authorise the Bank to date and present these cheques for payment and utilise the proceeds towards repayment of any amount outstanding under the Loan in the order set out above in Section D Clause 1.4(a).

If Security is required by us, you must:

- (i) provide the Bank with such Security as requested, in a form and substance satisfactory to the Bank; and
- (ii) maintain or cause to be maintained in full force and effect all Security given to the Bank until full repayment of the relevant Loan together with all interest, Charges and Fees.

You understand and agree that any Security will continue until the Loan is fully and finally settled.

You must comply with all of your obligations under any Security provided by you to the Bank and, where necessary, procure that any Third Parties fully comply with such obligations.

You also understand and agree that the Bank may, if the Bank considers it desirable to do so, register the particulars of any arrangement entered into with you on the Security Registry and you waive any objection to such registration.

1.9. Payment Default

- (a) What happens if you fail to repay a Loan, a repayment instalment, interest or charges when due?

If any amount is not received by the Bank on its due date, the Bank may use any Security or the proceeds raised from such Security held by the Bank in respect of any Loans that you have taken out to fund the payment of your obligations under the Loan Documents.

Default Interest accruing at the Default Interest Rate on any amounts due but unpaid under the Loan Documents will be calculated by the Bank on a daily basis for the period in which the relevant amount remains unpaid and will be added to the Principal Amount and will be payable by you on demand. Any such late payments may also be subject to a late payment charge. Please also see Clause 1.7(c) above of this Section.

Any action taken against you by the Bank will be without prejudice to any rights that the Bank may have against any of your guarantors and the Bank's rights to contact your employer for the recovery of any debt pursuant to salary assignment arrangements.

You agree that on default, the Bank and its authorised agents (inside or outside the UAE) will have the right to follow up on the collection of any amounts due to the Bank from you and take actions permitted under Applicable Law including, but not limited to, contacting you, visiting your place of work or visiting your residence in the UAE or abroad.

- (b) Can the Bank terminate a Loan?

- (e) Can the Bank require you to repay your Credit Card debt at any time?

Subject to Applicable Law, the Bank may demand immediate payment of the Closing Balance on a Credit Card Account at any time.

In addition to any other rights available to the Bank under these General Terms, the Bank may also exercise its right of set-off pursuant to Section A Clause 28:

Please also refer to Section A Clause 12 in respect of Standing Instructions.

If you have opened a Virtual Account, it can only be used for the purpose of crediting funds when the Credit Card payment is overdue. The details (i.e. IBAN and/or account number) of the Virtual Account will be sent to you once the application is approved by the Bank. A Virtual Account cannot be used as a regular Savings Account and no credit will be permitted prior to the Payment Due Date. You understand and agree that the Virtual Account is an additional source for payments to your Credit Card for your convenience.

2.7. Instalment Facilities

- (a) How can you apply for a CC Instalment Facility?

You may request the Bank to grant you a CC Instalment Facility if:

- (i) the applicable CC Instalment Offer has been communicated by the Bank to you applying for the relevant CC Instalment Facility;
- (ii) other than in respect of an ALOC, the CC Instalment Principal Amount is within your available Credit Limit on the Eligible Card on the date of application; and
- (iii) the Eligible Card is in good standing in accordance with the Bank's policies, procedures, guidelines and these General Terms.

The Bank may agree to a CC Instalment Facility in its sole and absolute discretion.

If the Bank agrees to enroll you under a CC Instalment Facility it will notify you of the number, frequency and amount of instalments forming part of that CC Instalment Facility.

- (b) What should you know about the applicable fees and charges, interest and repaying an Instalment Facility?

When you avail of a CC Instalment Facility, you undertake to pay to the Bank the aggregate of the EMIs payable under the relevant CC Instalment Facility, plus all applicable fees and charges, in accordance with these General Terms.

All fees and charges specified in the relevant CC Instalment Offer ("CC Instalment Fees") (other than the applicable interest which is accounted for in the calculation of the EMIs payable under the relevant CC Instalment Facility) will be payable upfront by the Eligible Cardholder and such fee will be debited from the Credit Card Account on or around the date such CC Instalment Facility becomes effective, unless expressly stated otherwise in the relevant CC Instalment Offer.

The applicable interest rate in respect of each CC Instalment Facility will include (a) the flat interest rate offered by the Bank for the applicable CC Instalment Facility; and (b) the corresponding reducing interest rate charges as set out in the Schedule of Charges.

Interest accrues at the rate set out in the Schedule of Charges determined by the Bank on a monthly basis and is calculated on the basis of 12 months per year on a reducing balance basis (which means interest is only calculated on the outstanding amount every month).

Following the establishment of a CC Instalment Facility, each outstanding monthly instalment amount that is at that time due will be specified in each account statement. In respect of each CC Instalment Facility granted by the Bank to an Eligible Cardholder, the EMI payable each month during the facility term will be calculated by reference to: (i) the CC Instalment Principal Amount; (ii) the applicable interest rate per annum; and (iii) the applicable facility term. Interest will be payable in respect of each instalment under the relevant CC Instalment Facility and will be debited from the Credit Card Account at the times determined by the Bank and notified to you.

The amount of each EMI payable will be the same except for the first EMI payable which will be adjusted to take account of any applicable CC Instalment Fees.

The aggregate of the EMIs payable under the relevant CC Instalment Facility, plus all applicable CC Instalment Fees, will be charged to the account of the Eligible Card and will be set out in the account statement of the applicable Eligible Card ("CC Instalment Card Statement") immediately following the date of the CC Instalment Facility having been granted ("First CC Instalment Card Statement").

The first EMI will be payable on the due date specified in the First CC Instalment Card Statement and the relevant EMI will be payable every month thereafter as specified in each subsequent CC Instalment Card Statement until the final EMI is paid and no further amounts are outstanding under the relevant CC Instalment Facility.

All applicable CC Instalment Fees as set out in the First CC Instalment Card Statement will be payable on the due date specified in such First CC Instalment Card Statement, unless expressly stated otherwise in a CC Instalment Offer, in which case such CC Instalment Fees will be payable on the due date specified in a subsequent CC Instalment Card Statement.

Following a CC Instalment Facility having been granted to you, the minimum payment due on the due date specified in the First CC Instalment Card Statement and each subsequent CC Instalment Card Statement (“Payment Due Date”) will be the aggregate of (i) and (ii) below, such that:

- (i) is equal to the sum of (i) the EMI payable under that CC Instalment Facility, all EMIs payable under any other outstanding CC Instalment Facility, and the aggregate of all other outstanding transactions which have been billed and multiplied by (ii) the minimum payment percentage (as determined by the Bank in its sole discretion); and
 - (ii) is equal to the sum of any amounts in excess of the Credit Limit applicable to the Eligible Card (other than in the case of EMIs payable under a Loan on Card Over Credit Limit) and all amounts which are past due on the Eligible Card.
- (c) What happens if you fail to pay a CC Instalment Facility or cancel your Credit Card when a CC Instalment Facility is active?

If you fail to make payment in full of two (2) consecutive EMIs under a CC Instalment Facility and/or if an Eligible Card is cancelled prior to payment in full of all amounts outstanding under a CC Instalment Facility, the entire amount outstanding on the Eligible Card (including billed and unbilled retail and cash transactions, all outstanding amounts under a CC Instalment Facility, and all applicable fees and charges) will be immediately due and payable by the Eligible Cardholder and the Bank has the right to demand immediate payment.

- (d) Can you prepay a CC Instalment Facility?

Yes, you may elect to prepay in one single payment the aggregate of all of the then outstanding EMIs under the relevant CC Instalment Facility, subject to: (i) notice to the Bank of such intention to prepay; (ii) the applicable CC Instalment Fees having been paid; and (iii) payment of an early settlement fee in accordance with the Schedule of Charges (or as otherwise determined by the Bank in its sole discretion).

The Eligible Cardholder intending to make a prepayment in accordance with these General Terms is solely responsible for notifying the Bank of such intention. The Bank will not be responsible, nor have any liability to the Eligible Cardholder, for any fees and/or charges payable by the Eligible Cardholder due to failure to notify the Bank or any delays in notifying the Bank of such intention to prepay.

Neither the amount of each EMI nor the schedule of EMI payments due under a CC Instalment Facility will be reduced or otherwise rescheduled under any circumstances.

- (e) What are the Bank’s rights in relation to an Instalment Facility?

Subject to Applicable Law, the Bank may, by notice to the Eligible Cardholder, cancel its commitment to make available a CC Instalment Facility.

The Bank may from time to time determine the details of, and any applicable conditions to, each CC Instalment Offer communicated by the Bank to applicable Eligible Cardholders.

Subject to Applicable Law, the Bank may at any time terminate, cancel and/or vary the benefits, features or terms of any CC Instalment Offer (“Offer Variation”). However, no such Offer Variation will affect the terms and conditions applicable to a CC Instalment Facility already granted and disbursed by the Bank to an Eligible Cardholder before such Offer Variation.

The Bank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, cancel any CC Instalment Facility which has been granted and disbursed to an Eligible Cardholder in respect of an Eligible Card. In such circumstances, the Bank will be entitled to immediately demand repayment in full of all of the aggregate EMIs then outstanding under the CC Instalment Facility.

- (f) What happens to your Credit Limit when you avail a CC Instalment Facility?

Upon disbursement of the CC Instalment Principal Amount under any CC Instalment Facility, an amount equal to the aggregate of the applicable EMIs payable by the Eligible Cardholder under the relevant CC Instalment Facility will be blocked on the Eligible Card and accordingly the available Credit Limit on the Eligible Card will be reduced by such aggregate amount.

Upon payment to the Bank by the Eligible Cardholder of an EMI, the blocked amount on the Eligible Card will be released by an amount equal to the EMI so paid and accordingly the then applicable available Credit Limit on the Eligible Card will be increased by such EMI amount paid.

- (g) What should you know about an Instalment Payment Plan?

You may be able to avail of an offer from the Bank for an Instalment Payment Plan in respect of:

- (i) selected retail transaction(s) with selected merchant(s), subject to a minimum spend and an interest rate of 0% for a specified period (“IPP Merchant Offer”); and/or
- (ii) all retail transactions, subject to a minimum spend and an interest rate higher than 0% for a specified period (“IPP Balance Offer”).

In respect of an IPP Merchant Offer, you may apply for an IPP only after having completed the relevant retail purchase from the relevant merchant on the Eligible Card.

- (h) What should you know about a Balance Conversion?

You may be able to avail of an offer from the Bank for a Balance Conversion (“Balance Conversion Offer”).

The CC Instalment Principal Amount available under a Balance Conversion will not exceed the outstanding balance on the Eligible Card in respect of billed or unbilled transactions on the date of a request by the Eligible Cardholder to avail of a Balance Conversion, and such outstanding balance will expressly exclude: (i) any cash transaction and associated fees and charges (billed or unbilled); (ii) the aggregate of the EMIs outstanding under any CC Instalment Facility; and (iii) any amount of such outstanding balance for which credit is received and/or payment is made on or after the date of a request by the Eligible Cardholder to avail of a Balance Conversion.

- (i) What should you know about a Balance Transfer?

You may be able to avail of an offer from the Bank for a Balance Transfer (“Balance Transfer Offer”). A Balance Transfer Offer may be made available to a person who becomes an Eligible Cardholder by subscribing to an Eligible Card. The facility term of the Balance Transfer will begin on the later of the date of approval by the Bank of the available Credit Limit of the Eligible Card and date on which the Balance Transfer is granted to the Eligible Cardholder, regardless of delivery delay, loss or otherwise of the Eligible Card.

If a Balance Transfer is granted to you, the applicable CC Instalment Principal Amount will be made available to you either through the unutilised amount on the Eligible Card or, if so requested of the Bank by the Eligible Cardholder, through a Manager’s Cheque.

Any and all obligations and liabilities owing to the other relevant UAE bank which issued a credit card to the Eligible Cardholder availing of a Balance Transfer are wholly those of the Eligible Cardholder. The Bank has no liability whatsoever to such other UAE bank in respect of any amount outstanding on any credit card issued, or other facility granted, by that bank to the Eligible Cardholder.

(j) What else should you know about a CC Instalment Facility?

You should know that, depending on the terms of the CC Instalment Facility agreed by the Bank, by agreeing to a CC Instalment Facility or an amendment to an existing CC Instalment Facility, individual instalment amounts may be increased and/or you may pay more in interest or fees and/or it may take you longer to discharge all amounts outstanding on a Credit Card Account than otherwise may be the case.

The Bank will not be responsible for any delay in the transmission by a merchant or other Third Party to the Bank of evidence of any purchase made by an Eligible Cardholder using an Eligible Card.

No points, rewards or credits that would otherwise accrue on an Eligible Card in respect of a Rewards Program or loyalty program will accrue in respect of an Eligible Cardholder availing of any CC Instalment Facility or making any payments with an Eligible Card in connection with any CC Instalment Facility. In particular, any points, rewards or credits accrued, earned or converted on purchases where a Balance Conversion or Instalment Payment Plan is subsequently availed of by an Eligible Cardholder will be cancelled and/or withdrawn.

2.8. Security

(a) Do you need to provide any security for your Credit Card?

The Bank may at any time demand that you provide an undated cheque (including any electronic cheque or e-cheque drawn on a Virtual Account acceptable to the Bank from time to time), pledge over a deposit and/or any other collateral as security for your Liabilities in relation to a Credit Card.

If you provide the above e-cheque, it will be considered electronically signed by you and linked to the Virtual Account. You authorise and instruct the Bank to affix a copy of your specimen signature to the e-cheque as further evidence that you intend to be bound by such e-cheque and that it will be construed as duly signed and accepted by you.

If you provide an undated cheque, you authorise the Bank to insert the date on such cheque and present it for payment on the inserted date for payment of any Liabilities or present it for payment upon the occurrence of any event of default.

2.9. Interest, Charges & Fees

(a) What charges are you liable for in relation to your Credit Card?

You may be charged a Finance Charge in accordance with the Credit Card Documents and subject to Clause 2.9(b) below.

The Finance Charge may vary based on the type of Credit Card and Card Transaction (e.g. Cash Advances, Balance Transfers etc.). The applicable Finance Charge will be applied on unpaid Card Transactions from the date of the relevant Card Transaction, at the prevailing interest rate set out in the Schedule of Charges (or otherwise communicated to you), until full settlement.

You agree to pay all applicable fees, costs, charges, EMIs and expenses of the Bank in connection with the provision of a Credit Card or a CC Instalment Offer as set out in the Schedule of Charges.

The Bank may in its sole and absolute discretion, by notice to you, amend any Finance Charge or other Charges and Fees due at any time in accordance with Applicable Law.

The Bank will also have the right to charge you interest on unpaid Charges and insurance premiums or fees.

(b) Is there an interest-free period?

The Bank may allow you an interest-free period (as set out in the Schedule of Charges from time to time) from the date of any purchase of goods or services if you pay your Total Payment Due in full by the Payment Due Date. There is no interest-free period for Cash Advances or any other Card Transactions that the Bank chooses from time to time to exclude from the interest-free period.

2.10. Card Conversion

(a) Can you convert your Credit Card to a different type of card?

You may at any time request the Bank to convert an existing Credit Card to another Credit Card offered by the Bank. Your request will be subject to approval by the Bank, payment of any applicable fees for the purpose of conversion and agreement to such terms and conditions as the Bank may require.

If the Bank approves your request to convert your Card, all Charges and Fees and other Liabilities relating to the existing Card Account will be transferred to the new Card Account. You should understand, if the Bank approves the conversion, the rewards program or other benefits earned on the existing Credit Card by virtue of the customer loyalty program prevalent on the existing Credit Card will not be converted into the rewards program or any other program or benefit of the converted Credit Card.

The Bank may also convert an existing Credit Card to another Credit Card offered by the Bank subject to Applicable Law.

(a) How can you terminate your Credit Card?

You can terminate your Credit Card in accordance with Section A Clause 19.

(d) What happens to your Credit Card in the event of death, loss of legal capacity or bankruptcy?

Upon being notified of the death, loss of legal capacity or bankruptcy or the occurrence of any similar event affecting you, the Bank will act in accordance with Applicable Law. Subject to Applicable Law, the Bank will be entitled to:

- (i) cease the provision of all services related to the Credit Card (whether in whole or in part);
- (ii) block or freeze a Credit Card or the Credit Card Account (whether in whole or in part); or
- (iii) close and terminate the Credit Card Account.

From any time that the Credit Card Account is blocked or frozen the Bank will not accept any Card Transaction, Cash Advance, Balance Transfer, or Standing Instruction to be made on or from such Card Account other than in accordance with Applicable Law or in accordance with an order from a competent Court or authority having jurisdiction over the Bank.

2.12. Additional Benefits and Insurance

- (a) Are there any other benefits and features that may come with your Credit Card?

Subject to your fulfilment of the applicable eligibility criteria, your Credit Card may come with Special Features, such as participation in a rewards program and/or such other benefits and/or features as may be available under your Credit Card from time to time.

In order to benefit from any features or rewards that apply to a Credit Card, you must have a valid Credit Card in good standing which is in compliance with the Credit Card Documents and any applicable additional terms. It is also subject to any terms and conditions of the particular feature or reward, including redemption, which the Bank will highlight in the applicable additional terms. If you violate any applicable terms or the reward terms and conditions you may be disqualified from receiving or benefiting from the relevant rewards.

The Bank reserves the right to amend any features or rewards applicable to a Credit Card by notice to you. In addition, the Third Parties which offer the rewards may amend, suspend or terminate the rewards and if this happens the Bank will notify you.

You should also understand that not all features and rewards will apply to a supplementary Credit Card. You should check with the Bank if you have any questions on this.

Each Rewards Program may have its own terms and conditions, which may vary from program to program, but will cover issues such as, but not limited to, eligibility criteria (for membership as well as the transactions to which the program relates), operation of the program and redemption of rewards. You also acknowledge and agree that the Third Party provider/manager(s) of a Third Party Rewards Program will have the right to vary the terms and conditions of a Third Party Rewards Program at its discretion. - (c) cancelling any Reward and substituting it with another reward of comparable nature and value, as prescribed by the Bank.

The rights set out above may diminish the redemption value of the points already earned but you will not have any claim for compensation for any such losses.

While the Bank will reasonably endeavour to notify you before amending and/or varying the terms and conditions or features of a Bank Rewards Program, it will have the right to do so without notifying you in advance. The Bank accepts no liability for any such amendment and/or variation.

You acknowledge and agree that the operator of a Third Party Rewards Program may from time to time, in its sole discretion, amend and/or vary any part or feature of a Third Party Rewards Program, including the terms and conditions applying to the Third Party Rewards Program.

Any such amendment and/or variation may be beyond the control of the Bank. While the Bank will reasonably endeavour to notify you before any such amendment and/or variation, you agree and acknowledge that the operator(s) of the program will have the right to effect such amendment and/or variation without notifying you in advance. The Bank will not be responsible for any Liability arising out of or in relation to any such amendment and/or variation.

You represent, warrant and agree on an ongoing basis throughout the Term that:

- (a) you are acting as principal and not as agent on behalf of another person;

- (o) that the information you have provided in the Investment Risk Profile is true, accurate and not misleading.

8. Risk Disclosure

8.1. What risks should you be aware of when you make Investments?

- (a) Investing in financial products involves risk, including but not limited to market risk, foreign exchange risk, credit risk, regulatory risk, political risk, settlement risk, economic risk, emerging markets risk as well as the specific structural risks related to particular Assets, and you must consider all such risks before instructing to the Bank to subscribe for, buy or sell any Asset or otherwise to make an Investment on your behalf. If in doubt, you should consult your own professional advisers regarding all aspects related to the Investments which you intend to make.
- (b) The value of the Assets may fluctuate due to the volatile nature of such Assets or the relevant markets which may result in loss of entire capital invested. The past performance or simulated performance of Assets is not an indication or guarantee of future performance. Fluctuations in the value of the Assets, will affect the value of the Investment Portfolio Account; this value may rise and may fall over time and the Bank gives no guarantee on the performance or value of assets.

- (c) Deduction of fees, charges and expenses may result in you receiving an amount less than the capital value initially invested.
- (d) The Bank gives no assurance or guarantee that the performance of the Assets credited to the Investment Portfolio Account will achieve your objectives as stated in the Investment Risk Profile or otherwise. No results are guaranteed; your capital invested may diminish in value over time, or may lose its entire value. The sole risk and liability for all decisions relating to an Investment made on your behalf pursuant to the terms hereof lies with you.
- (e) Transactions in derivatives instruments carry substantial risk of loss of capital and income. Derivatives are complex financial instruments, typically structured by reference to the performance of assets or a pool of assets (which may be synthetic), and it is often difficult to understand the terms and true credit risk of the Customer in such an instrument. It is imperative that you are sufficiently familiar with such instruments and that you are prepared to risk the loss of all your invested capital in any such instrument.
- (f) Dealing in non-traditional funds, which includes hedge funds, private equity funds and other funds with special market or operational risk, involves high risks. Non-traditional funds can incur high rates of leverage through borrowings and use of financial derivatives. This means that even small market movements can result in the total loss of the assets of such a fund, which means that the investor in such a fund would lose its entire investment. These funds may invest in emerging markets which typically pose greater risk than more developed markets. Depending on the structure of the fund, the underlying assets and leverage levels, liquidity risk is high in respect of these types of Investment. These funds are often issued and redeemed on a periodic basis only and may be subject to fixed holding periods during which the investor is not permitted to liquidate its investment. These funds may be established in offshore jurisdictions where the legal and regulatory systems may not be well developed. Some of these investments may also reserve the right to make in-kind distributions instead of cash distributions. The valuation of certain of these investments may not be transparent or may not be possible at all.
- (g) Investments in particular Assets may include Investments into alternative strategies or property funds depending on the Portfolio Specifications. These funds may be illiquid or may contain risks greater than, or not normally associated with, Investments in traditional securities markets. Investment in such Assets poses increased risk to capital invested and accordingly, you may lose your entire capital invested.
- (h) Shariah compliant Investments or Services will not be structured, approved or otherwise certified by the Bank as being Shariah compliant. Where the Bank offers such Shariah compliant Investments or Services, the Bank will not have engaged a Shariah board (or similar body) to determine independently whether or not such products and/or Services are compliant with Shariah principles. The Bank accepts no liability with respect to the fairness, correctness, accuracy, reasonableness or completeness of any such determination or guidance by any Shariah board that has certified or otherwise approved such investments as Shariah compliant. In deciding whether to invest in Shariah compliant products, you should satisfy yourself that investing in such products will not contravene Shariah principles and you should consult your own Shariah advisors as to whether investing in such products is compliant or not with Shariah.
- (i) For Investments in ESG (Environmental Social Governance) criteria compliant product or for green products that may be offered, the Bank provides no assurance that the investment, product or offering will meet your expectations regarding 'ESG', 'sustainable', 'responsible', or other equivalently labelled objectives or that no adverse environmental, social, and/or other impacts will occur. An investment, product, or offering that pursues a sustainability, responsibility or ESG-related investment strategy or uses any such expression in its name does not automatically guarantee a higher financial return than traditional investing, nor does it prevent you from bearing a financial loss.

- (j) In some Investments, liquidity may be suspended and there may be delays in realising proceeds.
- (k) Subscription to or purchase of interests in a Fund or ETF involves a high degree of risk (legal, financial, structural and otherwise) and which might include a possible loss of the entire principal amount used for investment and that past performance of the Fund or ETF is not a guarantee to its future performance or returns.

9. Collateral and Margin

9.1. Under what circumstances can the Bank require collateral from you for certain Investments?

In respect of any Investments to be entered into by the Bank or its Agents on your behalf, if in the view of the Bank, at its sole and absolute discretion, such Investment carries such risk that warrants a requirement for collateral, the Bank may at any time require that you transfer to, and pledge in favour of, the Bank a cash amount or assets acceptable to the Bank, in each case of such value as the Bank may determine ("Ordinary Collateral").

You irrevocably undertake to transfer to the Bank, and to pledge in favour of the Bank, Ordinary Collateral within one (1) Business Day of demand by the Bank or as otherwise agreed with the Bank.

9.2. In relation to forward sale transactions or futures transactions, what collateral may the Bank require from you?

In respect of any Investments to be entered into by the Bank or its Agents on your behalf in connection with Assets which are "forward sale transactions" or "futures transactions", the Bank reserves the right to require from you: (i) an amount (to be determined by the Bank), or collateral acceptable to the Bank which is of equal value, to be transferred to the Bank, to cover potential claims in respect of those Assets (the "Margin"); and (ii) additional amounts, or collateral acceptable to the Bank, if the value of the Margin (as determined by the Bank) reduces ("Additional Collateral").

The Margin will be an amount equal to a percentage of the value of the Asset, as determined by the Bank. The percentage may be subject to change, as determined by the Bank in response to change in market conditions and without any notice requirement to you.

You agree to transfer to the Bank, and to pledge in favour of the Bank, each of the Margin and the Additional Collateral (as applicable) within one (1) Business Day of demand by the Bank or as otherwise agreed with the Bank.

9.3. What actions can the Bank take if you fail to satisfy your collateral obligations?

If the Ordinary Collateral, Margin and/or Additional Collateral is insufficient to cover any losses, costs, or expenses of the Bank or its Agents (as applicable), the Bank is entitled, but not obliged, to take any action permitted under Applicable Law, including without limitation:

- (a) deducting amounts from the Cash Sum in the Account;

- (b) liquidating your Assets if you do not comply with the Bank's demand as described in Clauses 9.1 and 9.2 above.

10. Redemption and Liquidation of Assets

10.1. What costs and expenses may arise from the liquidation of Assets, and how will they be paid by you?

The liquidation of Assets (or interests in Assets) and transfer of the relevant proceeds will result in costs and expenses (which may be substantial) being payable by you. You agree to pay all such costs and expenses, which may be deducted by the Bank from the proceeds of liquidation of such Assets (or interests in Assets), or should there be insufficient funds available from the proceeds, from your Account or any of your other assets or collateral held by the Bank.

The Bank may refuse any instruction from you or otherwise to transfer registration or custody of an Asset to a third party if such instruction may result in a violation of the terms of the Asset or any Applicable Law.

10.2. What happens when you redeem Assets?

When you redeem Assets credited to your Investment Portfolio Account, the Bank is under no obligation to deliver to you Assets which are identical to those previously credited to your Investment Portfolio Account, provided that, subject to the Bank's right to deliver to you the cash equivalent of the relevant Assets (in lieu of delivery of such Assets), the Bank will deliver, and you agree to receive, similar types of Assets to those previously credited to the Investment Portfolio Account.

You acknowledge that your instructions to liquidate or return Assets are in all circumstances subject to the terms of the Assets (including notice periods, and terms of the underlying manager, dealer, broker or administrator of any such Assets), and Applicable Law. Accordingly, there may be a delay in the payment of liquidation proceeds or delivery of the Assets (as applicable) to you.

10.3. What should you keep in mind prior to redeeming and/or liquidating Assets?

If you instruct the Bank to redeem and/or liquidate the Assets held on your behalf, in order to facilitate disposal and delivery of such Assets (or interests in Assets) and the transfer of the balance of liquidation proceeds, you are authorising the Bank, to:

- (a) transfer or cause to be transferred any Assets in the Portfolio which are held in the name of the Bank or an Agent for your benefit to be then held in your name and at your cost and expense;
- (b) liquidate the Assets and deliver to you the cash equivalent of the relevant Assets (in lieu of delivery of such Assets); and
- (c) in the event that any Investment Service can no longer (reasonably) be performed due to changes in the Bank's operating model, agency arrangements, and/or Applicable Law, the Bank reserves the right to liquidate or transfer the Assets as agreed with you. Any and all costs, fees, charges as result of such liquidation will be for your account.

10.4. How do you receive your payment proceeds from a redemption, liquidation or disposal of Assets?

Unless otherwise agreed, the Bank will credit your Account with the balance of proceeds resulting from the redemption, liquidation or disposal of the Assets in accordance with its terms.

The redemption proceeds will only be credited by the Bank to the Account and the Bank will not be obliged to remit the redemption proceeds to any of your accounts inside or outside of the UAE, if any.

No proceeds shall be credited to the Account unless and until the Bank has realised, collected or received such proceeds.

If your Account is not active or is closed for any reason at the time of redemption of your Assets, the Bank shall issue a manager's cheque (or such other suitable method used by the Bank at its sole and absolute discretion) in AED (at the then prevailing exchange rate) for the amount due to you.

11. Corporate Actions

11.1. What actions does the Bank take in case of corporate actions relating to the Assets?

The Bank will reasonably endeavour to obtain any and all notices of corporate actions in relation to the Assets and make such notices available to you.

The Bank will (and will endeavor to procure that any relevant Agent will):

- (a) exercise any proxy, voting and other rights arising out of your Assets only in the manner determined and instructed by you in writing from time to time;
- (b) in the absence of specific written instructions from you on such matters, either exercise any such proxy, voting and other rights arising out of your Assets in the manner in which it appears to the Bank or relevant Agent that your interests will be protected and if this is not clear in the discretion of the Bank or the relevant Agent, the Bank or relevant Agent reserves the right not to exercise any such proxy, voting and other rights arising out of your Assets, in which circumstances the Bank or any such Agent will not have any responsibility whatsoever; and
- (c) if a corporate action relates to option to receive dividend in a currency different from the currency of Investment, the Bank is entitled to instruct the Agent to receive such dividends in the currency of the underlying Asset or any other currency. Where the corporate action relates to option to receive dividend in cash or to reinvest dividend, the Bank is entitled to instruct the Agent to receive dividend in cash.

The Bank will not be liable for any losses that you may sustain on account of:

- (i) any delay or non receipt of a notice for corporate action by you;
- (ii) the voting, proxy, or any other rights arising out of your Assets exercised by the Bank or the relevant Agent based on your instructions or otherwise; or
- (iii) failure of the Bank or the relevant Agent to exercise any such proxy, voting or other rights arising out of your Asset.

12. Confirmations and Investment Portfolio Account Statements

12.1. How do you keep track of your Investments?

As soon as practicable after the completion of each Investment made on your behalf by the Bank, the Bank will send to you a confirmation of completion of such Investment ("Confirmation").

You must review each Confirmation and notify the Bank in writing of any discrepancy within thirty (30) Business Days of the Confirmation (and where you do not receive or is unable to access a Confirmation, such period will begin from the date you receive and are able to access the Confirmation after providing notice to the Bank in accordance with Section A, Clause 6, failing which the Confirmation will be deemed to be correct (subject to the Bank's right to rectify any error) and accepted by you. After such period, you may not raise any objections to the Confirmation and the Confirmation maintained by the Bank as to the status of the Investment will be conclusive and binding on you.

12.2. What if you do not receive a Confirmation?

It is your responsibility to notify the Bank if you do not receive a Confirmation or are otherwise unable to access a Confirmation within one (1) month of the date on which the Confirmation should have been received or made available to you. Upon expiry of such period you will be deemed to have received and accessed the Confirmation. The Bank will not be liable for any non-receipt or late receipt of Confirmations.

12.3. Will the Bank provide Investment Portfolio Account and custody statements?

Investment Portfolio Account statements ("PA Statements") and custody statements ("Custody Statements") will be provided to you in accordance with these General Terms and the provisions applicable to account statements under Section C will apply to all PA Statements and Custody Statements.

The PA Statement will set out the Assets (or interests in Assets) which stand to the credit of the Investment Portfolio Account and the estimated value attributable to such Assets (or interests in Assets).

12.4. What should you understand about PA Statements?

The PA Statement may include accrued, but unrealised, profit. In the case of Assets which are not listed or Assets which are not liquid securities (such as private investments) where there is no centralized exchange mechanism for price reporting, the PA Statement may not reflect a fair value for such Assets, or in certain instances, it may not be possible to determine any valuation of such Assets.

Assets which are interests in a collective investment scheme will be valued on a forward pricing basis and accordingly, the amount realised upon redemption of such Assets may differ from any valuation estimates set out in the PA Statement. Moreover, the value attributed to all Assets credited to a Investment Portfolio Account and as set out in a PA Statement is determined on a best estimate basis, and accordingly, the amount realised upon redemption of such Assets may differ from any valuation estimates set out in the PA Statement.

12.5. What if you have a complaint?

Any complaints or claims regarding execution or non-execution of orders, PA Statements, Custody Statements or any other instructions must be made in accordance with Section A, Clause 6 immediately upon receipt of a Confirmation concerning the Investment, and in any event, no later than within ten (10) days of such receipt ("Confirmation Date") or deemed receipt of such Confirmation pursuant to Clause 12.1 above.

Upon expiration of this period, the Custody Statement (as applicable) will be regarded as approved by you and the account balances and asset valuations are deemed to have been accepted by you, including approval of all operations and all reservations made by the Bank when crediting un-cleared funds.
